Faculty: Discussion Forums Overview

Hart Wilson - 2023-04-07 - Comments (0) - Faculty

Moodle offers five kinds of discussion forums that allow you to extend the conversation beyond the classroom. This comprehensive guide describes each of the forum types, explains the basic settings, and details how to grade student posts. This sample rubric for evaluating student responses was developed by Dale Vidmar and Kay Sagmiller.

Having problems with a forum? Check out this troubleshooting guide to the most frequently asked questions about forums.
