You'll find new courses in the center of your Moodle home page under My courses (scroll down below the last visible course and look for grayed out course names). You can also find them by entering the CRN in the Search courses field just above the list of your courses.

Quick Links for Getting Started on New Courses

- If you need a refresher, these instructions will walk you through copying a prior course into your new site.
- Cross-listed courses are automatically created as combined sites. If you need to combine sections, these instructions explain how to achieve that effect.
- This new quarter checklist offers quick reminders for getting a site up and ready to go.

Don't forget—our Moodle How To's page has lots of great articles. Please don't hesitate to ask for assistance if you don't find what you're looking for.
